

COURSES FOR TEACHERS - SUMMER 2016

WHO IS IT FOR ?

This program is tailored especially for French teachers (FLE-FLS-DNL) in primary, secondary or higher education. The objective of this course is to perfect your educational techniques and to introduce activities and tools to motivate your learners. For European teachers, these courses are eligible in conformance with the ERASMUS + program.

DESCRIPTION

The main objectives of this course:

- Allow you to enrich and to renew your pedagogy within the framework of modules and of workshops combining teachers from various countries.
- Favor a reflexive practice through exchange and analysis of learning strategies and education.
- Learn more about France and French-speaking countries as well as their cultures.

The content of the course integrates the latest contributions and methods of FLE and the action – orientated approach recommended by the Common European Reference frame for the Languages, while taking into account the diversity of teaching contexts.
