

FRENCH FOR UNIVERSITY STUDIES

WHO IS IT FOR ?

- For international students who wish to study or complete their education at a university in France
- For professionals wishing to settle in France or wishing to follow a university course in France to validate their diplomas obtained abroad

NUMBER OF LESSONS

28 lessons of 45 minutes per week (21h): 20 General French lessons + 2 free workshops of 45 minutes + 6 group lessons in French for University Studies.

DESCRIPTION

General French courses: General French training for levels B1+, B2, B2+, C1, based on the CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference for Languages) a communicative and action-oriented approach. These courses allow the development of oral and written skills in international classes.

French courses for University Studies: These courses prepare effectively for the pursuit of higher education in France or a French speaking country and meet the language needs of students : understanding a class, ask questions, make an oral presentation, reading articles and literature ...

They also seek the acquisition of methodological skills to perform specific academic tasks: taking notes, attend a seminar, speak to peers or before a jury, define a problem, synthesize one or more documents, develop a plan research etc.

They integrate their disciplinary content (science, law, human and social sciences, medicine) and may include a support for academic integration.
